• The LWA (Lost Wages Assistance) Program, authorized by Presidential Memorandum, provides up to $400 per week in additional benefits. $300 is funded at the federal level while 25% ($100) is optional and contributed by the state if it chooses to do so. Most states do not have the budget to add the extra $100 so the stimulus benefit total for most claimants will be $300. To be eligible for the extra benefits, one must receive at least $100 as part of his or her regular UI, meaning that those who receive less than $100 state WBA are ineligible for this stimulus. This is in contrast with the $600 FPUC where everyone who was eligible for at least $1 in benefits would receive the extra funds. The LWA is funded by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Check out the State Tracker here. "NOT PAID" simply means state has not yet applied to FEMA for funds.

DO YOU QUALIFY FOR A GRANT? Below is a list of grants and financial assistance programs available to small businesses. Some are available to certain types of businesses and others are open to all struggling small businesses. Read through to find the opportunities that may be a good fit for your small business. Several of these grants have already been mentioned in prior posts but are worth the reminder.

- Facebook Small Business Grant Program
  - Facebook is offering $100 million in grant funds and ad credits to small businesses affected by coronavirus. To qualify, businesses need to have between 2 and 50 employees. The funds are available to more than 30,000 businesses in more than 30 countries where Facebook operates.

- Salesforce Care Grants
  - Salesforce and Ureeka have partnered to offer $10,000 grants to small businesses experiencing hardships. To qualify, businesses must have between 2 and 50 employees, have at least 2 years in business as of March 2020, and have between $250,000 and $2 million in annual revenue. Applications are open in phases based on location. Qualified businesses can apply online.

- Google Ad Credits
  - Google is offering $340 million worth of ad credits to SMBs around the world. The company has also committed grants to support health organizations and non-profits. The funds available to SMBs are available to those who have had active Google Ads accounts over the past year. And the credits are automatically available, so you don’t need to apply. SMBs can use the funds for ad spend throughout 2020.

- Yelp Advertising Credits
  - Yelp is offering $25 in relief specifically for restaurants and nightlife businesses facing coronavirus challenges. This relief includes free advertising and waived fees, like free page upgrades and three months of free access to Yelp Reservations and Waitlist features. Independent local advertisers in other industries can also apply for relief.

- GoFundMe Small Business Relief Fund
➢ GoFundMe's Small Business Relief Fund provides micro-grants to small businesses affected by coronavirus. To qualify, small businesses must raise at least $500 in a GoFundMe fundraiser, and the company and its partners provide matching grants to provide additional support. Businesses must also be independently operated and use the funds to support employees. Partners include Yelp, Intuit QuickBooks, Bill.com, and GoDaddy.

• Verizon Small Business Recovery Fund
  ➢ The Local Initiatives Support Coalition and Verizon have partnered to provide grants of up to $10,000 for qualified small businesses. Verizon’s total investment includes $7.5 million. Businesses can use the funds to pay rent and utilities, meet payroll, pay outstanding debts, and meet other immediate operational expenses.

• Goldman Sachs COVID-19 Relief Fund
  ➢ Goldman Sachs has made a commitment of $550 million in total relief funds. Much of that is set aside for emergency small business loans. The rest is available in grant funds to organizations, healthcare providers, and communities.

• JPMorgan Chase Philanthropic Investment
  ➢ As part of its $50 million global philanthropic commitment, JPMorgan Chase has set aside grant funds for small businesses throughout the U.S., Europe, and China that are facing economic hardships. The funds will be mainly dedicated to businesses in vulnerable and underserved markets.

• The Entrepreneurial Dream Project
  ➢ This grant and mentorship program from Supermaker includes $100,000 in non-dilutive grant funds and mentorship opportunities with accomplished entrepreneurs like Mark Cuban and Rebecca Minkoff. Two qualified businesses will receive the funds and ten more will receive coaching.

• Business For All
  ➢ Business For All is a mentorship and grant program powered by Alice and Verizon. Small businesses can apply for grants of up to $50,000 to support their growth. There are also $10,000 emergency grants available to support businesses in crisis due to coronavirus. Grants are awarded on a rolling basis. And businesses can apply until September. The program also includes video mentorship sessions with prominent entrepreneurs.

• Freelancers Relief Fund
  ➢ Many freelancers have lost work during the pandemic and don’t have access to traditional unemployment benefits. So the Freelancers Union has set up a fund to distribute emergency aid to members in need. Beneficiaries may receive up to $1,000 to help cover household expenses during this time.

• The Workers Fund
  ➢ The Workers Fund is a program that accepts donations and distributes them to gig workers and low earning contract employees who do not qualify for unemployment benefits but have lost work due to coronavirus. The Workers Lab is working with Canary to get funds out to verified freelancers and gig workers.

• Artist Relief
➢ For artists of various disciplines facing financial hardships due to coronavirus, Artist Relief has brought together national arts grantmakers to help. Qualified artists may receive $5,000 grants to help with dire financial emergencies.

• Beauty Changes Lives Relief Grants
  ➢ For beauty industry professionals who are out of work due to coronavirus, Beauty Changes Lives is offering $1,000 Relief Grants. Grants are funded by the Horst Rechelbacher Foundation and CDN Creative Nail Design and are available to working professionals and students of beauty programs.

• JBF Food and Beverage Industry Relief Fund
  ➢ The James Beard Fund has made emergency relief funds available to independent restaurants and food service businesses. The applications are currently suspended due to overwhelming demand. But they may re-open the program going forward.

• Stacy’s Rise Project
  ➢ For female founded businesses, Stacy’s is offering a grant, mentorship, and advertising program to provide support during this time. Fifteen female founders will receive $10,000 grants. And applicants may also receive free ad space and expertise from PepsiCo and Frito-Lay business leaders.

• SheaMoisture Fund
  ➢ SheaMoisture is offering grants for women of color, black business owners, and businesses that assist communities through the pandemic. The company has set aside a total of $1 million to help businesses stay afloat, with funds separated into a few different grant categories.

1. New! Did you know that SBA's Lender Match tool helps connect minority-owned businesses with SBA-approved CDFIs and small lenders? Here's how it works:
   - Describe your needs - Answer a few questions about your business in as little as five minutes.
   - Get matched in two days - Receive an email with contact information of lenders who express interest in your loan.
   - Talk to lenders - Compare rates, terms, fees, and more.
   - Apply for a loan - Submit loan applications and paperwork. You're well on your way to securing a business loan.

2. The LWA (Lost Wages Assistance) Program, authorized by Presidential Memorandum, provides up to $400 per week in additional benefits. $300 is funded at the federal level while 25% ($100) is optional and contributed by the state if it chooses to do so. Most states do not have the budget to add the extra $100 so the stimulus benefit total for most claimants will be $300. To be eligible for the extra benefits, one must receive at least $100 as part of his or her regular UI, meaning that those who receive less than $100 state WBA are ineligible for this stimulus. This is in contrast with the $600 FPUC where everyone who was eligible for at least $1 in benefits would receive the extra funds. The LWA is funded by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Check out the State Tracker here. "NOT PAID" simply means state has not yet applied to FEMA for funds.

3. The Employee Retention Tax Credit - The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act created a new employee retention tax credit for employers who are closed, partially closed, or experiencing significant revenue losses as a result of COVID-19.

4. Two leave-sharing programs are available to employers during the COVID-19 pandemic: major disaster leave-sharing programs and medical emergency leave-sharing programs. These leave-sharing programs may allow employees to donate paid leave to co-workers affected by COVID-19. When properly structured under Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") guidance, the donated leave is excluded from the gross income of the donor employee. Find more info here. More recently (June 11, 2020), the IRS published Notice 2020-46, which permits employers to establish an additional type of leave-sharing program: a leave-based donation program under which employees can donate vacation, sick, or personal leave in exchange for cash payments that the employer makes to a charitable organization described in Internal Revenue Code (the “Code”) Section 170(c) (a “Section 170(c) Organization”)

5. Paycheck Protection Program (PPP)

   Notice: Paycheck Protection Program closed August 8, 2020
• The loan will be fully forgiven if the funds are used for payroll costs, interest on mortgages, rent, and utilities (due to likely high subscription, at least 60% of the forgiven amount must have been used for payroll). [Frequently Asked Questions about PPP Loan Forgiveness (08-11-2020)]

6. Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) Emergency Advance

*Revised on 6/18/20  This program has reopened for small business and agriculture enterprises

This loan advance will provide up to $10,000 of economic relief to businesses that are currently experiencing temporary difficulties. EIDL is an emergency loan program for federal disasters, including COVID-19. This program offers up to $2 million in assistance for fixed debts, payroll, and other account expenses with an interest rate of 3.75 percent for small businesses and 2.75 percent for nonprofits.

• What’s new: The CARES Act opened EIDLs to more types of small businesses, made it easier to apply, and ensured that EIDLs smaller than $200,000 can be approved without a personal guarantee.

• Additional feature: Through the SBA Economic Injury Emergency Grant Program, businesses can receive an emergency advance of up to $10,000 to small businesses and private non-profits harmed by COVID-19 within three days of applying for an SBA EIDL.

• How to access the advance: Companies must first apply for an EIDL and then request the advance. The advance does not need to be repaid under any circumstance, and may be used to keep employees on payroll, to pay for sick leave, meet increased production costs due to supply chain disruptions, or pay business obligations, including debts, rent and mortgage payments.

• Who is eligible: Small businesses with fewer than 500 employees (including sole proprietors with or without employees), independent contractors, cooperatives and employee owned businesses, private non-profits and tribal small businesses impacted by COVID-19.

• How to apply: Use the SBA’s application portal [here](Fill out the intake survey. Learn more).

• Need assistance with your application? OED provides technical assistance to businesses applying for this loan, this includes helping businesses navigate the application process and assemble the required documents. Businesses interested in these services, please complete the in-take survey and we will reach out to you within one business day. [Fill out the intake survey. Learn more]

4. SBA Debt Relief The SBA is providing a financial reprieve to small businesses during the COVID-19 pandemic. Additional SBA Debt Relief Information

5. Economic impact payment information On March 30, the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service announced that distribution of economic impact payments will be distributed automatically within the next three weeks, with no action required for most people. However, some taxpayers who typically do not file returns will need to submit a simple tax return to receive the economic impact payment.

   - Who is eligible for the economic impact payment? Tax filers with adjusted gross income up to $75,000 for individuals and up to $150,000 for married couples filing joint returns will receive the full payment. For filers with income above those amounts, the payment amount is reduced by $5 for each $100 above the $75,000/$150,000 thresholds. Single filers with income exceeding $99,000 and $198,000 for joint filers with no children are not eligible. Social Security recipients and railroad retirees who are otherwise not required to file a tax return are also eligible and will not be required to file a return.

   - Eligible taxpayers who filed tax returns for either 2019 or 2018 will automatically receive an economic impact payment of up to $1,200 for individuals or $2,400 for married couples and up to $500 for each qualifying child.

6. Tax return extension information Some people have not filed their 2019 tax returns, but that's OK. The filing deadline has been extended to July 15. The IRS also says that people who have filed or plan to can still expect to receive a refund if they are owed one.

7. Student loans To provide relief to student loan borrowers during the COVID-19 national emergency, federal student loan borrowers are automatically being placed in an administrative forbearance, which allows you to temporarily stop making your monthly loan payment. This suspension of payments will last until Sept. 30, 2020. NEW 4/21/20: If you have private student loans, Washington State has secured relief options with many private student loan servicers to expand on the protections the federal government granted to federal student loan borrowers. These new options stand to benefit thousands of Washington borrowers with privately held student loans. Under this new initiative, Washington borrowers with commercially-owned Federal Family Education Program Loans (FFELP) or privately held student loans who are struggling to make their payments due to the COVID-19 pandemic may be eligible for expanded relief. Borrowers in need of assistance should immediately contact their student loan servicer to learn about the options that are appropriate to their circumstances.

8. Fully refundable tax credit for businesses The CARES Act establishes a fully refundable tax credit for businesses of all size that are closed or distressed to help them keep workers on the payroll. The goal is to get those employees hired back or put on paid furlough to make sure they have jobs to return to. The credit covers to 50 percent of payroll on the first $10,000 of compensation, including health benefits, for each employee.

   - For employers with more than 100 full-time employees, the credit is for wages paid to employees when they are not providing services because of the coronavirus. Eligible employers with 100 or fewer full-time employees could use the deduction even if they aren’t closed.
9. Families First Coronavirus Response Act Questions and Answers As provided under the legislation, the U.S. Department of Labor will be issuing implementing regulations. Additionally, as warranted, the Department will continue to provide compliance assistance to employers and employees on their responsibilities and rights under the FFCRA.

10. Moratoriums on evictions and foreclosures

   - A borrower with a federally backed mortgage experiencing financial hardship due to coronavirus may also request a forbearance for up to 180 days, which may be extended for another 180 days at the request of the borrower.

   - The law allows multifamily housing owners with a federally backed mortgage to request a forbearance for up to 30 days, which can be extended by another 60 days at the request of the borrower, on the condition that they agree not to evict tenants or charge tenants’ late fees.

   - The bill also institutes a moratorium on filings for evictions for renters in homes covered by a federally backed mortgage for 120 days of enactment.

11. Relief for HUD Section 108 Borrowers Impacted by Coronavirus Many communities used Section 108 funds to make loans to businesses undertaking economic development projects. Some of these businesses are experiencing reductions in revenue due to the economic impact of coronavirus and are now requesting relief, e.g., forbearance on their payment obligations under their loans.

12. Check your bank account. If you qualified for a government stimulus rebate via direct deposit, it should be there. The Internal Revenue Service started depositing the money on April 15, 2020. If the money isn’t there, consumers can go to a new IRS site, Get My Payment, that will allow people to check the status of their rebate. It should include the date the payment would be deposited or mailed.

13. The applications for the Save Small Business Fund is now closed, due to overwhelming demand

14. Coronavirus Food Assistance Program (CFAP). This new U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) $19 billion immediate relief program provides critical support to our farmers and ranchers, maintains the integrity of our food supply chain, and ensures every American continues to receive and have access to the food they need.

   - Direct Support to Farmers and Ranchers: The program will provide $16 billion in direct support based on actual losses for agricultural producers where prices and market supply chains have been impacted and will assist producers with additional adjustment and marketing costs resulting from lost demand and short-term oversupply for the 2020 marketing year caused by COVID-19. USDA announced farm loan flexibilities, deferrals (PDF, 243 KB), and maturity extensions
• USDA Purchase and Distribution: USDA will partner with regional and local distributors, whose workforce has been significantly impacted by the closure of many restaurants, hotels, and other food service entities, to purchase $3 billion in fresh produce, dairy, and meat. For all the information on USDA’s work during the COVID-19 pandemic and resources available, please visit www.usda.gov/coronavirus.

15. New on 7/13/20 Changes to the Women-Owned Small Business (WOSB) Certification Process Start July 15. Being certified for the WOSB Federal Contracting Program means your business is eligible to compete for contracts that are set aside for WOSBs and economically disadvantaged WOSBs (EDWOSB) and sole-source federal contracts within eligible industries. That reduces your competition and opens doors to new lines of revenue in government contracting. Starting July 15, you may either apply through the SBA’s new free online certification; or, certify through an approved third-party entity at a cost. Get all the details about the WOSB Federal Contracting Program here.

12. Washington State Department of Financial Institutions - guide for families who need financial assistance including:
   - Mortgage Assistance: If you do not have enough money to cover your mortgage payment, contact your lender immediately. Homeowners in distress may call DFI’s toll-free number 1-877-RING-DFI (746-4334) to talk to a member of our team and to get assistance in how best to contact their mortgage servicer, and to learn more about their options.
   - Paying Student Loans: If you’re having trouble making payments, there may be assistance available to you. The CARES Act provides relief for most federal student loan borrowers. If you have private student loans, Washington State has secured relief options with many private student loan servicers to expand on the protections the federal government granted to federal student loan borrowers. These new options stand to benefit thousands of Washington borrowers with privately held student loans. Under this new initiative, Washington borrowers with commercially-owned Federal Family Education Program Loans (FFELP) or privately held student loans who are struggling to make their payments due to the COVID-19 pandemic may be eligible for expanded relief. Borrowers in need of assistance should immediately contact their student loan servicer to learn about the options that are appropriate to their circumstances.

- Paying Rent: If you are unable to make your full rent payment, contact your landlord immediately and try to work out an agreement. The Department of Housing and Urban Development offers counseling from organizations that can help you make the right decisions and point you towards the right resources. [Governor Jay Inslee Announces Temporary Moratorium on Residential Evictions]

- Paying Credit Cards: If you have seen a reduction in pay due to COVID-19 and are struggling to make your credit card or loan payments, contact your credit card company right away. Explain your situation and ask about hardship programs that may be available. Regulatory agencies have encouraged financial institutions to work with customers impacted by the coronavirus. Credit card companies and lenders may be able to offer you a number of options to help you. This could include waiving certain fees like ATM, overpayments, and late fees, as well as allowing you to delay, adjust, or skip some payments.

- Utilities Assistance: Governor Jay Inslee has called on all public utilities in Washington state to ensure the health and safety of their employees and the public by suspending disconnection tariffs for nonpayment during this emergency; waiving late fees for customers who are out of work or offering customers payment plans; and expanding bill assistance programs for customers who are economically impacted by this emergency. Many utility companies are already doing this. For assistance, contact your utility company.

• Crisis Planning Tools and Resources from Start-Up Washington The Washington Small Business Development Center is a partnership with the U.S. Small Business Administration, Washington State University and other Washington Institutions of higher education and economic development organizations. Funded in part through a cooperative agreement with the U.S. Small Business Administration. All opinions, conclusions or recommendations expressed are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the SBA.

• Tri-Cities Open for Business The Chamber is sensitive to how the COVID-19 pandemic is impacting both Tri-Cities businesses as well as the Tri-Cities community at large. In response, the Chamber has launched the Tri-Cities: Open for Business initiative to help member businesses communicate with the public during this time of crisis. Regional Chamber members are asked to send us their social media posts, menus, etc. that have to do with the following:
  ➢ Offers for special services
  ➢ Updates of business hours
  ➢ Information about special precautions/closures
  ➢ Offers for takeout or delivery services
  ➢ Offers for online services or classes

• All In Tri-Cities All in Tri-Cities is a simple, community effort to help connect people interested in helping, to those most in need during the COVID-19 crisis.
New on 7/6/20 Pasco Mayor Signs Emergency Order to Assist Restaurant Outdoor Seating  Pasco Mayor Saul Martinez has signed an emergency order that will give Pasco restaurants flexibility in outdoor seating under the just-announced order allowing Franklin County to move to a modified Phase 1 under Governor Inslee’s Safe Start Phased Reopening Plan. The order is effective immediately and will be considered for City Council ratification at Monday’s meeting.

New on 6/29/20 Pasco COVID-19 relief grants, up to $30,000 each, are now available to eligible small businesses operating in the City of Pasco. These grants are funded by the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, as allocated to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Community Development Block Grant (CDBG-CV) program. Businesses meeting the criteria and located within the city limits of Pasco are eligible to apply. Nearly $350,000 in grants to businesses with 5 or fewer employees, including the owner, are available for distribution.
Eligibility Requirements:
➢ A City of Pasco business license for a commercial location operating within the city limits
➢ For-profit small business consisting of five or fewer employees, including the owner(s), with low-moderate household income (LMI), not to exceed 80% of median household income for the Pasco-Kennewick-Richland area
➢ A US Citizen or Permanent Resident Alien
➢ Have experienced a drop in revenue as a result of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic
➢ In operation for one year or longer
➢ Have not received any other financial assistance in the form of grants, subsidized loans, insurance, or reimbursement

The Downtown Pasco Development Authority (DPDA), on behalf of the City of Pasco, will be administering grants to these eligible small businesses. Please contact DPDA at (509) 546-1304, or info@downtownpasco.com, for questions or more information. The City is working on additional grant monies for small businesses that have more than five employees and expects to make an announcement in early July.

Mayor Martinez signed two emergency declarations to help mitigate the impacts of COVID-19 on the Pasco community, which were ratified by the full City Council, as per the Pasco Municipal Code, on March 23. The orders are:
➢ Order 2020-001 provides for a variance in the City’s sign code to allow restaurants more use of signs, including sandwich boards and banners, to advertise take-out or delivery services. Interested businesses can call Community Development for more information at (509) 545-3441.
➢ Order 2020-002 enacts a temporary moratorium on utility service shut-offs and late fees for City of Pasco customers during this emergency. However, customers are urged to call Customer Service at (509) 545-3448 to set-up a payment plan if they are having financial difficulties or for more information.

City leaders and Pasco School Superintendent Michelle Whitney recorded a panel discussion this week on COVID-19; you can watch it at https://bit.ly/PascoMayorUpdate.

Residents and businesses are encouraged to follow/like the City on Facebook and Twitter for the latest news.
Kennewick

- New on 7/20/20 Kennewick City Council passed an ordinance temporarily waiving minimum off-street parking requirements for restaurant and retail uses in commercial zones. This provides restaurant and retail businesses an opportunity to temporarily utilize up to 50% of their required, existing outdoor off-street parking spaces to increase their occupancy during the phased reopening as outlined in the Governors “Safe Start” plan. Additionally, restaurant and retail businesses may temporarily utilize 100% of their existing off-street parking that is in excess of the minimum required off-street parking spaces as determined by the City of Kennewick. Businesses who wish to pursue this new opportunity can submit an on-line application.

- New on 6/5/20 City of Kennewick launches Microenterprise Emergency Grants available for Kennewick’s small businesses.
