AREA BUSINESSES TO MEET BUYERS FROM CENTRAL PLATEAU CLEANUP COMPANY

TRI-CITIES, Wash. – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce and Washington APEX Accelerator invite businesspeople to meet representatives from Central Plateau Cleanup Company (CPCCo) at a free workshop on December 16.

CPCCo is a prime contractor for the Department of Energy in Richland, WA. This event is designed to help small businesses learn how to navigate CPCCo's procurement process, explore upcoming contracting opportunities, and gain valuable insights directly from their procurement team. Whether you're new to government contracting or looking to expand your reach, this event will provide attendees with practical guidance and networking opportunities to help them succeed.

The Meet the Buyer – Doing Business with CPCCo event will be held on Monday, December 16 in the Bechtel Board Room inside the Tri-Cities Business & Visitor Center at 7130 W. Grandridge Blvd. in Kennewick. The workshop is scheduled from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The workshop is free to attend, but attendees are required to RSVP online at washingtonapex.ecenterdirect.com/events, as space is limited.

For questions, please contact Maria Alleman, Washington APEX Accelerator Counselor, at 509.491.3231 or maria.alleman@tricityregionalchamber.com.

The Meet the Buyer program is sponsored by Washington River Protection Solutions and presented by Washington APEX Accelerator and the Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Washington APEX Accelerator advises businesses on how to win government contracts and subcontracts. The one-on-one technical assistance includes bid reviews, marketing assistance, contract performance, small business certifications, and more. APEX Accelerators also host procurement training classes and seminars, and help businesses register with the correct databases in order to compete for government contracts.
