REGIONAL CHAMBER TO HOST WASHINGTON WORKPLACE SUMMIT ON MAY 27

KENNEWICK, Wash. – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce will host the Washington Workplace Summit on Wednesday, May 27 at the Three Rivers Convention Center in Kennewick. The premier sponsor of the event is Pacific Northwest National Laboratory (PNNL).

The Washington Workplace Summit is a half-day event dedicated to helping leaders enhance their office environment and team dynamics. Through engaging breakout discussions and an inspiring keynote presentation, Washington Workplace Summit attendees will receive actionable information and powerful resources to optimize their teams and drive lasting success in their organizations.

The event will conclude with the Regional Chamber’s May Membership Luncheon, featuring a keynote presentation from Author and Consultant, Jeff Utecht, titled From Friction to Flow: Building High-Performing Teams Across Generations

The Washington Workplace Summit is scheduled from 8:30 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. Registration for the half-day summit costs $76 for Regional Chamber members, $96 for non-members. Luncheon-only registration is $46 for members or $56 for non-members (a luncheon ticket is included with Summit registration). Registration is available at <https://www.tricityregionalchamber.com/workplacesummit.html>.

The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce is the catalyst, convener and champion for community and business prosperity. For further details about the Regional Chamber or the Washington Workplace Summit, visit www.tricityregionalchamber.com or call 509.736.0510.
