TRI-PORTS EXECUTIVES TO SPEAK AT REGIONAL CHAMBER'S NOVEMBER LUNCHEON

KENNEWICK, Wash. – Executives from the Port of Benton, Port of Kennewick and Port of Pasco will speak at the Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce's "State of the Ports" membership luncheon on Wednesday, November 28 at the Red Lion Hotel & Convention Center Pasco. The luncheon is sponsored by HPM Corporation.

The panel will feature Scott Keller, Executive Director, Port of Benton, Tim Arntzen, Chief Executive Officer, Port of Kennewick, and Randy Hayden, Executive Director, Port of Pasco. The panel discussion will be moderated by Kadlec's Director of Marketing and Communication, Jim Hall. All three ports have collaborated to produce a video showing their work in the community over the past year.

The "State of the Ports" program is scheduled from 12 to 1:30 pm. Attendees will have an opportunity to network during the half hour prior to the program. The cost for attending the luncheon is $25 for Chamber members, $35 for guests. Attendees can register online at tricityregionalchamber.com, via e-mail at info@tricityregionalchamber.com or by phone at 509.736.0510. The registration deadline is Wednesday, November 21.

The event sponsor, HPM Corporation, has teamed up with Second Harvest for a November food drive. Luncheon attendees who bring a business card a non-perishable food donation will be eligible to win a prize.

The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce is the catalyst, convener and champion for community and business prosperity. For further details about the Regional Chamber, visit www.tricityregionalchamber.com or call 509.736.0510.
