NEW CHAMBER, PTAC PROGRAM TO CONVENE GOVERNMENT CONTRACTORS MONTHLY

KENNEWICK, Wash. – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce and the Washington Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC) are thrilled to announce a new program for government contractors, Procurement Power Hour, sponsored by Jacobs.

Beginning in July, the new, monthly program will convene government contractors/subcontractors with like-minded peers and procurement professionals to discuss ideas, challenges, successes, and more, to advance their success in the government contracting arena. Each month's facilitated discussion will have a different focus.

The first session on July 12, titled What I Wish I'd Known, will include a discussion on lessons learned from experienced government contractors, and information they wish they would have known earlier.

Procurement Power Hour will take place on the second Thursday of each month from 8:30 - 9:30 am in the Bechtel Board Room at the Tri-Cities Business & Visitor Center. Attendance is free, and pre-registration is encouraged at washingtonptac.org.

Questions regarding Procurement Power hour can be sent to Ashley Coronado, PTAC Counselor, at ashley.coronado@tricityregionalchamber.com, or reach her by phone at 509.491.3231.
