TRI-CITY REGIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HIRES LISA ARNESON AS WORKFORCE & EDUCATION COORDINATOR

TRI-CITIES, Wash. – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce (TCRCC) has appointed Lisa Arneson as the organization’s Workforce & Education Coordinator. In this role, Arneson will serve as the primary point of contact for TCRCC’s workforce and education initiatives, such as supporting the Washington Workforce Portal, leading the Tri-Cities Regional Career Signing Day event, and more.

Arneson brings experience in job training, event planning, and the creation of project management systems. Prior to starting her position at TCRCC, she worked as an executive assistant and administrative professional for PorterKinney PC, a local accounting firm.

“I am thrilled to welcome Lisa Arneson as our new Workforce & Education Coordinator,” said TCRCC President & CEO Lori Mattson, IOM. “Lisa brings a unique and valuable skill set to our team. I am confident that her expertise will significantly enhance our efforts to support and develop the local workforce, driving meaningful progress for our members and the entire business community.”

Arneson can be reached at 509.491.3242 or lisa.arneson@tricityregionalchamber.com.

The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce is the catalyst, convener and champion for community and business prosperity. For further details about the Regional Chamber, visit www.tricityregionalchamber.com or call 509.736.0510.
