EXPERTS TO ADDRESS THE FUTURE OF TRI-CITIES' ENERGY DURING OCTOBER CHAMBER LUNCHEON

KENNEWICK, Wash. – Three experts will discuss the future of energy in the Tri-Cities during the Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce's Membership Luncheon on Wednesday, October 23 at the Red Lion Hotel & Conference Center Pasco. The luncheon is sponsored by Tri-Cities Chaplaincy.

This event will feature Greg Cullen, Vice President of Energy Services and Development at Energy Northwest; David Reeploeg, Vice President for Federal Programs at the Tri-City Development Council (TRIDEC); and Sean O'Brien, Executive Director of the Energy Forward Alliance. They will discuss the regional and local energy challenges, as well as the many opportunities for the Tri-Cities to continue serving as the Pacific Northwest's energy hub.

The program is scheduled from 12 to 1:30 p.m. Attendees will have an opportunity to network during the half hour prior to the program. The cost for attending the luncheon is $34 for members, $44 for guests. Attendees can register to attend by visiting the Chamber's website, tricityregionalchamber.com, via e-mail at info@tricityregionalchamber.com, or by phone at 509.736.0510.

The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce is the catalyst, convener and champion for community and business prosperity. For further details about the Regional Chamber, visit tricityregionalchamber.com or call 509.736.0510.
