REGIONAL CHAMBER HONORS AN INDIVIDUAL AND AN ORGANIZATION WITH TRI-CITIES CHAMPION OF DIVERSITY AWARDS

KENNEWICK, Wash. – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce honored an individual and a member organization with “Tri-Cities Champion of Diversity Awards” during the Tri-Cities Diversity Summit event on Wednesday, June 26 at the Three Rivers Convention Center in Kennewick.

The Tri-Cities Champion of Diversity Awards aim to recognize and commend an individual and a member organization that have demonstrated outstanding achievements and sustained commitment to the pursuit of diversity and inclusion in the community and workplace.

Evangelina Shreeve, Chief Diversity Officer and Director of STEM Education at Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, received the Champion of Diversity Award for an individual. Numerica Credit Union received the Champion of Diversity Award for an organization.

Awardees were honored with a trophy the Tri-Cities Diversity Summit and were featured in a professionally crafted video showcasing their contributions to diversity, equity, and inclusion in the community.

The Tri-Cities Diversity Summit is an annual half-day event focused on helping professionals create a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive workplace. Through engaging breakout discussions and an inspiring keynote presentation, Diversity Summit attendees will receive actionable information and powerful resources to optimize their team and bring about lasting change in their organizations. The Premier Sponsor of the Tri-Cities Diversity Summit is Pacific Northwest National Laboratory.

The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce is the catalyst, convener, and champion for community and business prosperity. For further details about the Regional Chamber, visit www.tricityregionalchamber.com or call 509.736.0510.
