REGIONAL CHAMBER TO HOST 'STATE OF THE CITIES'

KENNEWICK, Wash. – The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce will present their annual State of the Cities Membership Luncheon on Wednesday, May 23 at the Red Lion Hotel & Conference Center Pasco.

This year's program will feature representatives from all four cities: Kennewick Mayor Don Britain, Pasco Mayor Matt Watkins, Richland Mayor Pro Tem Terry Christensen, and West Richland Mayor Brent Gerry. The elected officials will present for ten minutes about new economic development projects, major legislative priorities at the state and federal level, as well as current projects that enhance quality of life and livability in the Tri-Cities.

Prior to the program's start, attendees can visit the Small Business Resource Fair – featuring representatives from resources that are available in the Tri-Cities to assist small businesses.

The Small Business Resource Fair is slated for 11 am – 12 pm, with the lunch State of the Cities program following immediately after.

Tickets for the State of the Cities luncheon are $25 for Regional Chamber members, and $35 for guests (non-members). The luncheon is sponsored by Baker Boyer Bank.

The Tri-City Regional Chamber of Commerce is the catalyst, convener and champion for community and business prosperity. For further details about the Regional Chamber, visit www.tricityregionalchamber.com or call 509.736.0510.
